Dandruff Germs

Rub on Parisian Sage and Destroy the Microbes

Get rid of the germs before they rob you of your hair.
You have a wealth of hair to-day; you can always have it if you will use PARISIAN SAGE regularly.

It is a hair tonic so compounded that when it is rubbed into the scalp it penetrates into the hair roots and gives them just the nourishment they need.

PARISIAN SAGE also kills dandruff germs and eradicates dandruff. It stops thair from falling and growing scant.

No chance for faded hair; for gray hair; for ill looking hair; no chance for baldness or bald spots if you use PARISIAN SAGE. Large bottles 50 cents at Tragle Drug Co, and druggists everywhere.

terests to narrow. We begin life in a contracted sphere. At the beginning we are chiefly concerned with the softness of our hed, the comfortable width of our cradies and the plentitude of our food. At life's end we ought to be deeply concerned in securing all these to ever member of the human race.

No one takes life right who deem't make his motto. "I shall do Instead of being done to. "There are persons who look upon life as a plastic thing which they can mould into any form that pleases them. Others think life is a high wind and they poor weather vance whipped ruthlessly about by blasts from every quarter. The first is an active liver or life, the second a passive endurer of it. The last is the sert that whimpers about heing a poor tool of Fate. "Fate" is a poor boogation of Fate. "Fate" is a poor boogation of Fate. "Fate" is a poor boogation that has frightened authors and individuals as storion about the had man have intimidated unseasonably boisterous children. But a time comes when the sturdy minded child outgrows his horrer of the boogleman fate." Character is shorter of the sturdy minded the boogleman Fate." Character is the chiese that can shape it practically at our will, it is time to stop whimpering. It is in us, as in Edison, to prove that "this earth is a cinch."
